

Vicente Lagüéns Gracia
vlaguens@unizar.es

Professor of the Spanish Language Area at the Department of General Linguistics and Hispanic Studies of the University of Zaragoza. His teaching has focused on the history of the Spanish language, Hispanic dialectology and Spanish lexicon. He has researched in the fields of lexicology and Hispanic lexicography, dialectology and onomastics (with special attention to the Aragonese field). He is a member of the research group Aralex, responsible of the development of a differential Aragon Spanish dictionary (DDEAR). He collaborates since 1986 in ELE courses and training courses for teachers of ELE organized by the University of Zaragoza in Jaca and Zaragoza. Currently he is the coordinator of the Master in Hispanic Studies (Language and Literature) and director of ELE courses of this University.