

Reyes Casasnovas Beltrán

rcasasnovas@unizar.es

Spanish Studies graduate from Zaragoza University. Accredited by the Spanish Instituto Cervantes and SIELE (International Assessment Service for the Spanish Language) trainer. Teacher at ELE in the Spanish department of the EOI (Official Language School No.1) in Zaragoza and professor of Spanish linguistic immersion, Spanish Linguistics, Spanish Language and Literature, and French language teacher of Secondary and Bachelor stages. Professor at the Spanish Workshop in the CAREI (Aragonese Inclusive Education Resource Centre) of the Government of Aragón. Expert in Applied Innovative Education and Multiple Intelligences in ELE (Spanish as a Second Language) teaching, contributed in the blog of the Spanish department of the EOI No.1 of Zaragoza, awarded with the European Accreditation Award to the most creative initiatives in the teaching and learning of languages 2012 by the Organization of European Educative Programmes. Co-author of the manual Enseño Medio Proyecto ELE para Brasil Niveles B1/B2, Madrid: Edelvives, 2013. Currently, Spanish teacher in ELE courses in the University of Zaragoza and DELE (Spanish as Second Language Diploma) examiner. Teacher trainer and tutor for master's degree courses at various universities, she is currently a Spanish teacher on the ELE courses at the University of Zaragoza, tutor for the Virtual Spanish Classroom (AVE Global) of the Instituto Cervantes at this university and a DELE examiner.