COURSES IN SPANISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE 2019/2020

UNIVERSITY OF ZARAGOZA, SPAIN

The Courses in Spanish as a Foreign Language are run throughout the year in Zaragoza, Huesca and Teruel, while in the summer they are transferred in the tourist city of Jaca in the Pyrenees.

The University of Zaragoza is a pioneer in teaching Spanish to foreign students since 1927. It collaborates with many national and international institutions in the dissemination of the Spanish language. It is an Official Examination Center for the Diploma of Spanish DELE, The International Spanish Language Evaluation Service (acronym in Spanish: SIELE) and the Test of Constitutional and Sociocultural Knowledge of Spain (CCSE), by delegation of Instituto Cervantes. In addition, it is an associated member of International Certification System for Spanish as a Foreign Language (SICELE). The examination in order to obtain the spanish nationality (DELE A2 and CCSE) take place in Zaragoza, Huesca and Teruel.

The University of Zaragoza is recognized worldwide, as demonstrated by the large number of foreign students attending as part of the various programmes that promotes and cooperates. The ELE Courses participate in these programmes, and also organize specific courses for foreign universities at their request.

COURSES IN SPANISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE IN ZARAGOZA

The city of Zaragoza has a population of more than 700,000 inhabitants. It is the capital of Aragon. It offers visitors the testimony of its more than two thousand years of history, with traces of its Roman, Arab, Jewish and Christian heritage.

Its privileged geographical location among Madrid, Barcelona, Bilbao and Valencia make it a natural meeting point for many activities of all kinds: conferences, national and international exhibitions, sporting events, artistic and scientific meetings, festivals, fairs, concerts, etc.

Its wide range of services make Zaragoza a very attractive city for visitors, who can enjoy a great variety of museums, shops, food establishments, leisure, etc.

SUMMER COURSES IN SPANISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE IN JACA

The Summer Courses in Spanish as a Foreign Language run by the University of Zaragoza in Jaca are the oldest in Spain, having been founded in 1927.

The city of Jaca, some 820 metres above sea level, was the capital of the old kingdom of Aragon and is today a leading tourist resort in the heart of the Aragonese Pyrenees, offering a wide range of cultural events and services, including concerts, street markets, exhibitions, lectures and conferences.

Its natural setting and facilities are ideal for many sports, including paragliding, horse riding, ice skating, rambling, etc.

The city has always been and continues to be a favoured way stage for pilgrims on the St. James Way and a focus for exchange and understanding between cultures. It also constitutes a gateway to Europe as it is only a few kilometres from the French border.

Together with the Spanish Courses for Foreign Students, Spanish Teacher Training Courses are also offered. Spanish-speaking students participate in these courses allowing Spanish and Foreign students the opportunity to spend time together and practise their language skills.
